What we do with the information we collect from you?

The above information we hold is used to provide our services to you in our capacity as an employment agency to find you suitable work and during the process of a formal job offer with the recruiting company, and to allow the process to complete the placement.

Personal data is used either by explicit request when a candidate has applied for a specific role or when a candidate asks us to find them a new position.

We will also contact candidates – by either email or telephone – who have given us their permission to hold their data, if we think a candidate would be suited to a role we are recruiting for.

We do not use SMS marketing.

When submitting a form or email on this website, the submitted data is sent to us. We use this data to contact you in relation to your enquiry. Access to data we collect is limited to the members of our staff and marketing agency who require that data to perform their duties.

Your data is also used internally for record keeping for the purposes of your job search.

We will not sell, distribute or lease your personal information to third parties unless we are required by law to do so.

Your rights

You have the right at any time to ask for a copy of the information about you that we hold. If you would like to make a request for information, please email us at recruit@leysman.com or call 01234 581 457.

In addition to this right of access to the information we hold, you also have the following rights: erasure, restriction of processing, objection and data portability.

Data security

We have put in place appropriate security measures to prevent your personal data from being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorised way, altered or disclosed. In addition, we limit access to your personal data to those employees, agents, contractors and other third parties who have a business need to know. They will only process your personal data on our instructions and they are subject to a duty of confidentiality.

We have put in place procedures to deal with any suspected personal data breach and will notify you and any applicable regulator of a breach where we are legally required to do so.

Data retention

How long will you use my personal data for?

We will only retain your personal data for as long as reasonably necessary to fulfil the purposes we collected it for, including for the purposes of satisfying any legal, regulatory, tax, accounting or reporting requirements. We may retain your personal data for a longer period in the event of a complaint or if we reasonably believe there is a prospect of litigation in respect to our relationship with you.

To determine the appropriate retention period for personal data, we consider the amount, nature and sensitivity of the personal data, the potential risk of harm from unauthorised use or disclosure of your personal data, the purposes for which we process your personal data and whether we can achieve those purposes through other means, and the applicable legal, regulatory, tax, accounting or other requirements.

No fee usually required

You will not have to pay a fee to access your personal data (or to exercise any of the other rights). However, we may charge a reasonable fee if your request is clearly unfounded, repetitive or excessive.

Alternatively, we could refuse to comply with your request in these circumstances.

What we may need from you

We may need to request specific information from you to help us confirm your identity and ensure your right to access your personal data (or to exercise any of your other rights). This is a security measure to ensure that personal data is not disclosed to any person who has no

Withdrawal of consent

If you have provided us with your consent to process your data, for the purpose of using our services and us finding you suitable work, you have the right to withdraw this at any time or opt-out of being contacted. In order to do so, you should contact us by emailing us at recruit@leysman.com or by phoning us on 01234 581 457 to update your preferences for communication.
